

BOWS FROM THE FINKEL WORKSHOP - SWITZERLAND

Johannes S. Finkel, born in 1947, is the fourth generation of bowmakers of the Finkel-Weidhaas bowmakers dynasty. He was trained by his father, Siegfried Finkel. His great grandfather was Ewald Weidhaas (b 1869;d 1939). His grandfather Paul Weidhaas, studied with Bausch and with V. Fétique in Paris.

On his father's retirement he took over the family workshop, and now works together with three more bowmakers, W. Ernst, M. Fischer and J.M. Lüthi, in Schwanden /Brienz, producing fine quality bows.

Violin Bows

- 1280 'Finkel Atelier', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1281 'Lefin', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1282 'W. Ernst', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1283 'J.M. Lüthi', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1284 'F.C. Neuville', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1285 'M. Fischer', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1286 'J.S. Finkel', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1287 'J.S. Finkel', pernambuco stick, silver mounted

Viola Bows

- 1289 'Finkel Atelier', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1290 'Lefin', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1291 'W. Ernst', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1292 'J.S. Finkel', pernambuco stick, silver mounted

Cello Bows

- 1293 'Finkel Atelier', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1295 'Lefin', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1296 'W. Ernst', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1297 'J.M. Lüthi', pernambuco stick, silver mounted
- 1298 'F.C. Neuville', pernambuco, silver mounted
- 1299 'J.S. Finkel', pernambuco stick, silver mounted

